

Remember in prayer...

- For our congregation, as we prepare for our congregational meeting and important vote regarding our ongoing denominational affiliation, next Sunday, May 18th.
- For our Catholic brothers and sisters as they celebrate the election of a new Pope.
- The increasing military tensions in India/Pakistan.
- The war in Israel/Gaza. For lasting peace.
- The war in Ukraine. For peace.
- For our nation during this time of political tension; for immigrant communities who are experiencing fear and anxiety.
- Pastor Johnny and family at the death of his father, John Sr.
- Marlyce Peterson, health concerns.
- Ellen Westcott and family at the death of her mother, Rosa Palumbo.
- Roland Young, ongoing health concerns, and for Martha as she cares for him.
- Jill Fuller (friend of Jean Williams), undergoing treatment for cancer.
- Christine White, ongoing treatment for a brain tumor.
- Preston Hopkins, (Bev Hopkins' brother-in-law) undergoing treatment for bladder cancer.
- Hal and Evelyn Smith, as Hal has moved into a memory care assisted living facility.
- Bill Holden's sister, Barbara Robidoux; return of cancer.
- The Tabernacle of the Holy Ministry, a Haitian immigrant church that is now using our facility for worship as they seek to share the good news of Jesus with their community.
- The Grateful Mug, our May Mission of the Month.
